Section I. SIGNATURE SUBMISSION CHARGE TO THE FIRST AUTHOR

The video essay creator ("Primary Creator") is charged with securing the signatures of ALL video participants for this submission. The AOCPMR requests that all signatures be secured in a single document. Please collect signatures of any/all co-creators and submit to the AOCPMR as instructed below.

Once signatures are collected, submit this form and all additional signature forms via the online submission form as an attached PDF.

Please retain copies for your files.

Section II: POLICY STATEMENT ON COPYRIGHT AND RE-PUBLICATION

The American Osteopathic College of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation copyrights each of the videos published on its online educational materials at the AOCPMR.org website, and elsewhere on AOCPMR social media, to protect the AOCPMR and the author against unauthorized use of the contents. The AOCPMR may also grant, without charge or royalty, the right of re-publication to other professional organizations, particularly for use in connection with continuing professional education. The AOCPMR will normally forward requests for permission for use as a courtesy to the original author for such author's information and possible comments.

The AOCPMR has always asked that authors of works appearing in its publications transfer to the AOCPMR all right, title and interest in such works, including copyright. Due to a change in copyright law, the AOCPMR must acquire each author's signature to effect the transfer of copyright. Videos and other recorded or written works cannot be considered for publication until an Assignment of Copyright form is signed by all authors and returned to us.

The AOCPMR assumes no responsibility for statements made in video essays contributed to its various publications and relies on contributing authors for the truth and accuracy of the contents of their statements.

ASSIGNMENT OF COPYRIGHT

In consideration of the expenses of editing and publishing and the professional benefits relating to the publication of the video essay created by the undersigned, the undersigned transfers to the AOCPMR all rights, title and interest in and to the video clip or other creative work as noted below, including (1) all copyright interest to use online, live conferences, and any other medium, (2) the right to grant permission to re-publish the video essay in whole or in part, with or without permission, and (3) the right to re-publish and "share" the video submission in a collection or compilation of video essays or in any format. The undersigned further affirms that the video essay has not previously been published, either online or in other format, is not subject to copyright or other rights, except as being transferred herein, and has not otherwise been submitted for publication, except as may be noted herein.
