2026 EXHIBIT AND SPONSOR PROSPECTUS

What Is a Physiatrist?

- Physiatrists are physicians who specialize in physical medicine and rehabilitation (PM&R)
- Physiatrists emphasize the prevention, diagnosis, treatment and rehabilitation of people disabled by disease, disorder or injury.
- Physiatrists use medicine, technology and innovation to manage a variety of conditions involving the nervous and musculoskeletal systems, and focus on function, independence and quality of life.
- Physiatrists specialize in fields such as traumatic brain and spinal cord injury as well as pain and sports medicine.
- AOCPMR members perform more than 200,000 procedures per year, ranging from electrodiagnostics, neurotoxin injections, ultrasound guided injections, and advanced interventional pain procedures.
- Nine of the 11 schools producing the most physiatrists are osteopathic medical schools.

Why Exhibit at AOCPMR NMUS 26?

- Exhibitors and sponsors will be part of AOCPMR NMUS26's unique workshop bringing together osteopathic physiatry's top personnel.
- Build Your Network – You will meet osteopathically-minded practicing physiatrists, academic leaders, rehabilitation professionals, and trainees.
- Show Your Expertise – AOCPMR NMUS26 gives you the venue to connect with a captive and targeted audience on the topics you care deeply about.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Application
Application for exhibit space should be made immediately but no later than May 15, 2026, and must be submitted with a deposit of 50 percent of the total space rental.

Sales & Order-Taking
The purpose of the exhibit is to further the education of meeting attendees through product and service displays and demonstrations. Sales and order taking are permitted provided all transactions are conducted in a manner consistent with the professional nature of the meeting. No signage or advertising of products pricing will be allowed without prior approval of AOCPMR. Products for sale must be the exhibitors' own unaltered, marketed products and the products or services must be pertinent to the attendees' professional interest. The American Osteopathic College of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation reserves the right to restrict sales activities that it deems inappropriate or unprofessional. Exhibitors conducting sales and order taking are required to obtain city and/or county occupational licenses and shall be responsible for collecting and remitting all city, county and state sales taxes. 5

Regulations Governing Payment
A deposit of 50 percent of the total space rental must accompany your application. The balance is due no later than May 16, 2026. Applications received after May 15 must be accompanied by full payment. No company will be allowed to exhibit unless full payment for exhibit space has been received. Failure to comply with the above request constitutes cancellation of the contract and the space will be subject to resale without full refund.

Cancellations
AOCPMR's receipt of an exhibitor's notice of cancellation prior to May 15, 2026, subjects the exhibitor to liquidated damages equal to 25 percent of the total cost of space assigned. Receipt of a notice of cancellation after May 15, 2026, subjects the exhibitor to liquidated damages equal to 100 percent of the total cost of space assigned. In the event the canceled space is resold, the liquidated damages will revert to 25 percent. All cancellations must be received in writing at the AOCPMR.

Character of Exhibit
AOCPMR reserves the right to decline or prohibit any exhibit or any part of any exhibit or proposed exhibit, which in its sole discretion is not suitable to or in keeping with the character of the exhibition. This reservation is all-inclusive and pertains to any person, company, products or printed material.

Noise in Exhibit Hall
All sound equipment must be regulated so that it does not disturb neighboring exhibits. Management reserves the right to determine at what point sound constitutes interference with others and must be discontinued.

Subletting of Space
No exhibitor may assign or sublet the whole or any portion of space allotted or exhibit therein any product other than those manufactured or sold by the exhibitor in the regular course of business, nor permit any representation of any firm not exhibiting to solicit business or take orders in the space. Violation of the above will risk cancellation.

Floor Plan Revisions
In the event of conflicts regarding space requests, or conditions beyond its control, the AOCPMR reserves the right to revise the floor plan.

Publicity
A list of exhibitors is published in the official program, which is supplied to all physicians and physicians-in-training attending the meeting. In addition, a concentrated attendance promotion is under way at both national and regional levels to ensure a record attendance.

Fire Department Regulations
No combustible decorations, such as crepe paper, tissue paper, cardboard corrugated paper, shall be used at any time. All packing containers are to be removed from the floor and must be stored under tables or behind displays. Excelsior or shredded paper is not to be used in crating merchandise.

Installation, Opening & Closing Time
Space will be available for setting up exhibits at AZCOM beginning Friday, June 12 at 5 pm. Dismantling CANNOT be initiated until 12 pm on Sunday, June 14. All exhibits must be removed by 2 pm on Sunday, June 14.

Liability
It is mutually agreed that it is the duty and responsibility of each exhibitor to install and put into place the exhibit before the opening of the exhibition and to dismantle and remove the exhibit immediately after the close of the exhibition; that all property shipped to or shipped by the exhibitor for installation or display at the exhibition is at the sole risk of the exhibitor.

It is mutually agreed that the AOCPMR shall not be liable to an exhibitor for any damage to or for loss or destruction of an exhibit; or the property of an exhibitor or injuries to his person resulting from any cause; all claims for any such loss, damage or injury being expressly waived by the exhibitor.
